

We support the integration of Interconnection Agreements over all carriers, so as to assure the most robust common telecommunications system. We particularly support the common activation and transport (including LNP routing) of all 555 NXX line numbers (see attached files).